Intent
Subject Aims	The broad areas of knowledge and skill being developed in this subject
The curriculum aims to inspire a lifelong passion for books and reading by providing access to a wide range of high-quality, challenging texts from various genres and time periods. The school's intent is to ensure that every student, regardless of background or ability, develops confidence in accessing books and engaging with texts across different subjects.	Our key intentions are: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• To ensure that whatever the starting point, students show progress and achieve to the best of their ability, develop their academic skills, personal skills and knowledge in order to thrive both now and in the future.• To develop students' confidence with reading.• To develop student's vocabulary, allowing them to express themselves clearly.• To be able to reflect and share opinions.• To show curiosity with stories.• Enhance critical thinking.

Implementation
Overview Across All Strands	How formative and summative assessment is used to improve understanding of knowledge and skills.
Whether a topic-based approach or text based, the concept is that students are able to access and engage with the content of the lessons in English, developing reading, writing and language skills.	Lessons are adapted to meet the individual needs of the students taking into consideration a multi-sensory approach, interactive and collaborative learning where students will have the opportunity to work in groups/partners, take part in discussions, and build on social skills and teamwork. Regular assessment will take place to monitor progress and understanding.
How is enrichment (clubs, trips etc.) implemented to enhance the components of this subject?	How are spiritual, moral, social and cultural values developed in this subject?
Creative writing club. Newspaper writing club. Authors invited in.	A broad range of texts and material under diverse cultural and historical contexts, exploring society and values changing over time.
