Class Teacher

Salary: M1 – UPS3 + SEN Allowance £2,787

Full-Time, Permanent Position

Wightwick Hall School is a growing, forward thinking generic SEN secondary school within Endeavour Multi Academy Trust, a Trust of seven schools including both mainstream primary and specialist settings. Our staff team is diverse, with many colleagues joining us from both primary and secondary backgrounds before specialising in SEN.

About Our School

Our provision is built around three pathways, complex needs, semi-formal, and formal. This structure allows us to tailor learning to the needs and abilities of each young person. Our curriculum is centered on preparation for adulthood, and we place strong emphasis on developing life skills, independence, and confidence.

We work using a restorative and relational approach, creating a nurturing environment based on trust, respect, and consistent positive relationships with the underpinning value 'one size fits one'.

Who We're Looking For

We are seeking a passionate and ambitious class teacher who is committed to helping young people with special educational needs thrive academically, socially, and emotionally. Whether your background is in primary or secondary education, we welcome applications from teachers with the enthusiasm and adaptability to make a meaningful difference.

Why Join Wightwick Hall?

-  Supportive, inclusive staff team
-  Professional development opportunities across the Trust
-  Nurturing, relational culture
-  Opportunity to make a meaningful impact
