Cherry Trees Special School is an Ofsted rated ‘Good’ school and is situated in South Staffordshire in the large village of Wombourne. It is part of the Endeavour Multi Academy Trust.

We are looking for a teacher with experience of supporting children who have SEN, with a strong track record of positive pupil outcomes.

This is a unique opportunity to join a nurturing and specialist setting where adapted specialist approaches and recommendations are central to teaching and learning. You will be working with pupils in Years 5 and 6 who may have autism, sensory processing challenges, ADHD and communication needs (SLCN).

We are seeking someone who:

- Is a qualified teacher with a strong background in supporting children with SEN, particularly with children aged 9–11 who require highly personalised, sensory-based learning.
- Has a deep understanding of sensory integration and can design and deliver engaging, multi-sensory lessons that support regulation, communication, and cognitive development.
- Can skilfully adapt the curriculum to meet individual EHCP outcomes, using creative approaches that promote independence and emotional wellbeing.

- Works collaboratively with families, therapists, and support staff to create consistent and responsive learning environments.
- Is confident in using sensory rooms, outdoor spaces, and therapeutic strategies to enhance engagement and progress.
- Brings warmth, resilience, and a reflective mindset to a team that values child-led practice and holistic development.

In return, we offer:

- A supportive leadership team committed to inclusive and innovative practice.
- Access to high-quality CPD in sensory integration, trauma-informed approaches, and assistive technology.
- A well-resourced environment tailored to the needs of children with complex profiles.
- A culture of collaboration, care, and celebration of every small step of progress.

If you are ready to bring your expertise and creativity to a setting where sensory teaching transforms lives, we would love to hear from you.

We are committed to equality, diversity and inclusion and welcome applications from all backgrounds. We value the unique contributions that a diverse workforce brings and are dedicated to creating an inclusive environment where everyone feels respected and able to thrive.

The successful candidate will join a committed, energetic and highly motivated staff team who place our children at the heart of all we do.
